Having to do With Taxation and Assessors' Beturns.
Bosron, May 26 The full bench of the sopreme court today in the case of Mary J Wright vs the city of Lowell filliment the judgment of the superior court holding that the plaintiff was suttlied to no that the plaintiff was cutliful to abstement of $430 on her tax bill for

The principal question involved in the case related to the construction of section 40 of chapter 11 of the public station 40 of chapter 11 of the public statutes which provides that the assessors shall receive as true the list of taxable property brought in by each individual unless on being thereto required by the assessors he refuses to answer on oath all necessary inquiries as to the nature and amount of his property."

Upon notice from the assessors, the plaintiff brought in a list of personal estate upon a blank furnished for the purpose by the assessors. This blank had printed questions upon it, and the questions were answered in writing by the petitioner in answer to the printed question, was personal property. noe bons were answered in writing by the petitioner in answer to the printed question, "Was personal property other than that enumerated in this schedule held by rou on May 1 by other parties as trustee or otherwise?" she answered "Certin personal estate 18 parties as troited or otherwise? she answered "Certain personal estate be held in trust for myself and others by a trustee residing in Brookline, Miss, the details and ontere of said property being unknown to me."

Before administering the out to the positioner the assessor asked dertain oral questions concerning that trust property to which she orally abswered: "I know some of the stocks and don't intend to tell. The income coming to me is $1,600 per year. It is none of your business what the stocks are."

The oral answers were written by the assessor upon the face of the blank and the list was then ex orn to and filed. The court holds that upon the agreed facts in the case the petitioner was not provented from applying for an abatement nor from obtaining it if she were aggrieved, by the tax assessed, by her retast to mewor upon oath all necessary leadings as to the nature and the amount of her property.

It also holds that the superior court could find from the agreed facts that she was not taxable for the $25 000 item and go could in fact find that the was over-rated and taxed at more than her just proportion and entitled to an abelement. The court does not discuss the proposition whether under lany circumstances her right might be an indicated by the assessor not made under oath.

Washington, May 26 In the Senate today the Pension Committee reported back the vetged pension bill of F. E. Hover with the recommendation that it be passed notwithstanding the objections of the President

The "filled cheese" bill was taken up An amendment was offered by Mr Dubois (Rep., Idaho) to impose an additional tax of Fo cents a barrel on user

Mr Shirman appealed to the Senators to pass the bill in the interest of the firmers of all sections He moved to lay the amendment on the table. The motion was lost, vess, 25, mays, 30.

The amendment being before the Senator ate Mr. Vilas (Dem., Wis.) spoke in opposition Mr. Mills advocuted the amendment Mr. Aldhich professed to be glad to learn that Mr. Mills was in favor of increasing the tax on beer and recalled to learn that Mr. Mills was in favor of increasing the tax on heer and recalled the fact that in the Miller triff bill reported some years ago, and in th. Wison and Bekt. Intil bill ther, was no such proposition. Mr. Mills offered to change the tax of bear to a tax on incomes or to a tax on manufactured products or any tax that would bring revenue to the government and hear unon the reversement.

In the House

The House went into committee of the whole to further consider the and free alcohol bill Mr. Dolliver (Rep., la) advocated the bill Mr. Dolliver and the proposition was simply a business matter and the tariff question was not involved. It was impussible now to enterpone revision of the tariff. Nothing practicable could be expected from the "juert Populistic mass called the United States Senate and the hiert. On motion of Senator Vilas the speech threat instead of issuing long thrm tioned by the bullors the workingmen of Chicago, was before the workingmen of Chicago, was printed and distributed as a public docu meneut Government expense Now, on motion of Senator Cockerill the reply made by Governor Atgeld is to be print ed and distributed in the same way This is a bad practice and ought to be discon-There was really no excuse for the publication of Secretary Carlisle as speech, atthough he is a representative of the United States Government, but the offenseis still greater in the case of Aigeld who has no connection with the Government and moreover is a blattat

Mr H H Walling, the Mayor of Orange Park, Florida, writes a letter to the Boston Journal defending the law providing for the education of the races He says the people of Florida want the colored people educated, but in different schools as intimute associations such as daily contact in the schools is danger ous He closes his letter as follows
If the faustics of the North could employ the colored race in may capacity for ten years those fanatics would know more than they do at present." It is a singular feet that when the negroes were siaves the Southerner say no danger in the most intimate relations, but now that they are recognized by the law as human beings with legal rights association means contamination. With all due reto see claims to be of New England birth, he is talking the most qumitigated rot. The law is a disgrace to the State and the man who apologizes for it has every reason to be ashamed of himself.
